Lieutenant Colonel Robert E. Mattingly (USMC)

Dear Colonel Mattingly,

On behalf of the Editorial Board and editors of Studies in Intelligence, congratulations upon your selection as recipient of the Robert D. Heinl Award for the best article on Marine Corps history published in 1982. We are delighted, and commend the Marine Corps Historical Foundation on its judgment.

We are pleased to have carried your award-winning "Who Knew Not Fear" in the Summer 1982 issue of Studies and to have published as well two other chapters from Herringbone Cloak - GI Dagger, your splendid account of Marines in the Office of Strategic Services. We look forward to additional contributions to the literature of intelligence from you.

Sincerely,

STAT

Chairman, Editorial Board
